Citizens of Soviet nationality residing in Plovdiv received orders to leave the city and move elsewhere. Allegedly this order is connected with a flight which occurred over the city of Plovdiv in May 1954 on the part of unidentified aircraft which at night dropped propaganda leaflets. These leaflets invited the people to have faith in the future, to hold fast against the Communists, and told them that the Bulgarian people were not forgotten and should remain ready to regain at any time their personal freedom.
